PUBLIC DISCLOSURE

Please complete this section to help identify any previous or upcoming public disclosures which could affect our ability to seek the broadest possible protection of your idea. Public disclosures include but are not limited to publications, abstracts, posters and oral presentations at meetings, website publication, grand rounds, awarded grants, and third party discussions. Presentations to University personnel are not considered public disclosures provided that non-University personnel are not in attendance. If you have any questions about what constitutes a public disclosure, please contact us.

Has the subject matter of your idea been publically disclosed? If so, provide the date and a citation or reference.

If there has been no public disclosure, is there an anticipated date of such disclosure? If so, provide the anticipated date.
